

The USC Writing Center presents....

HOW TO READ LIKE A GRADUATE STUDENT

Feeling overwhelmed by your workload? Wish you retained more from your readings? Join the Writing Center for lunch and an interactive workshop!

We will go beyond the normal advice about skimming to analyze the types of arguments that academics frequently make. Students will become familiar with the article structure in various disciplines, as well as the thesis statements that repeatedly appear in academic publishing.

We will also discuss how to prioritize your readings, how to take notes you'll actually use, and – above all – how to gain a feeling of control over a daunting workload.

To reserve your seat, email

writing@usc.edu

THH 118
MONDAY, OCTOBER 7, 12PM - 1:30PM
LUNCH WILL BE PROVIDED